Foreword

Many books pass through the hands of high school students. Some are read and remembered; others are ignored or forgotten. But no one book is cherished by everyone so much as is the High School Yearbook.

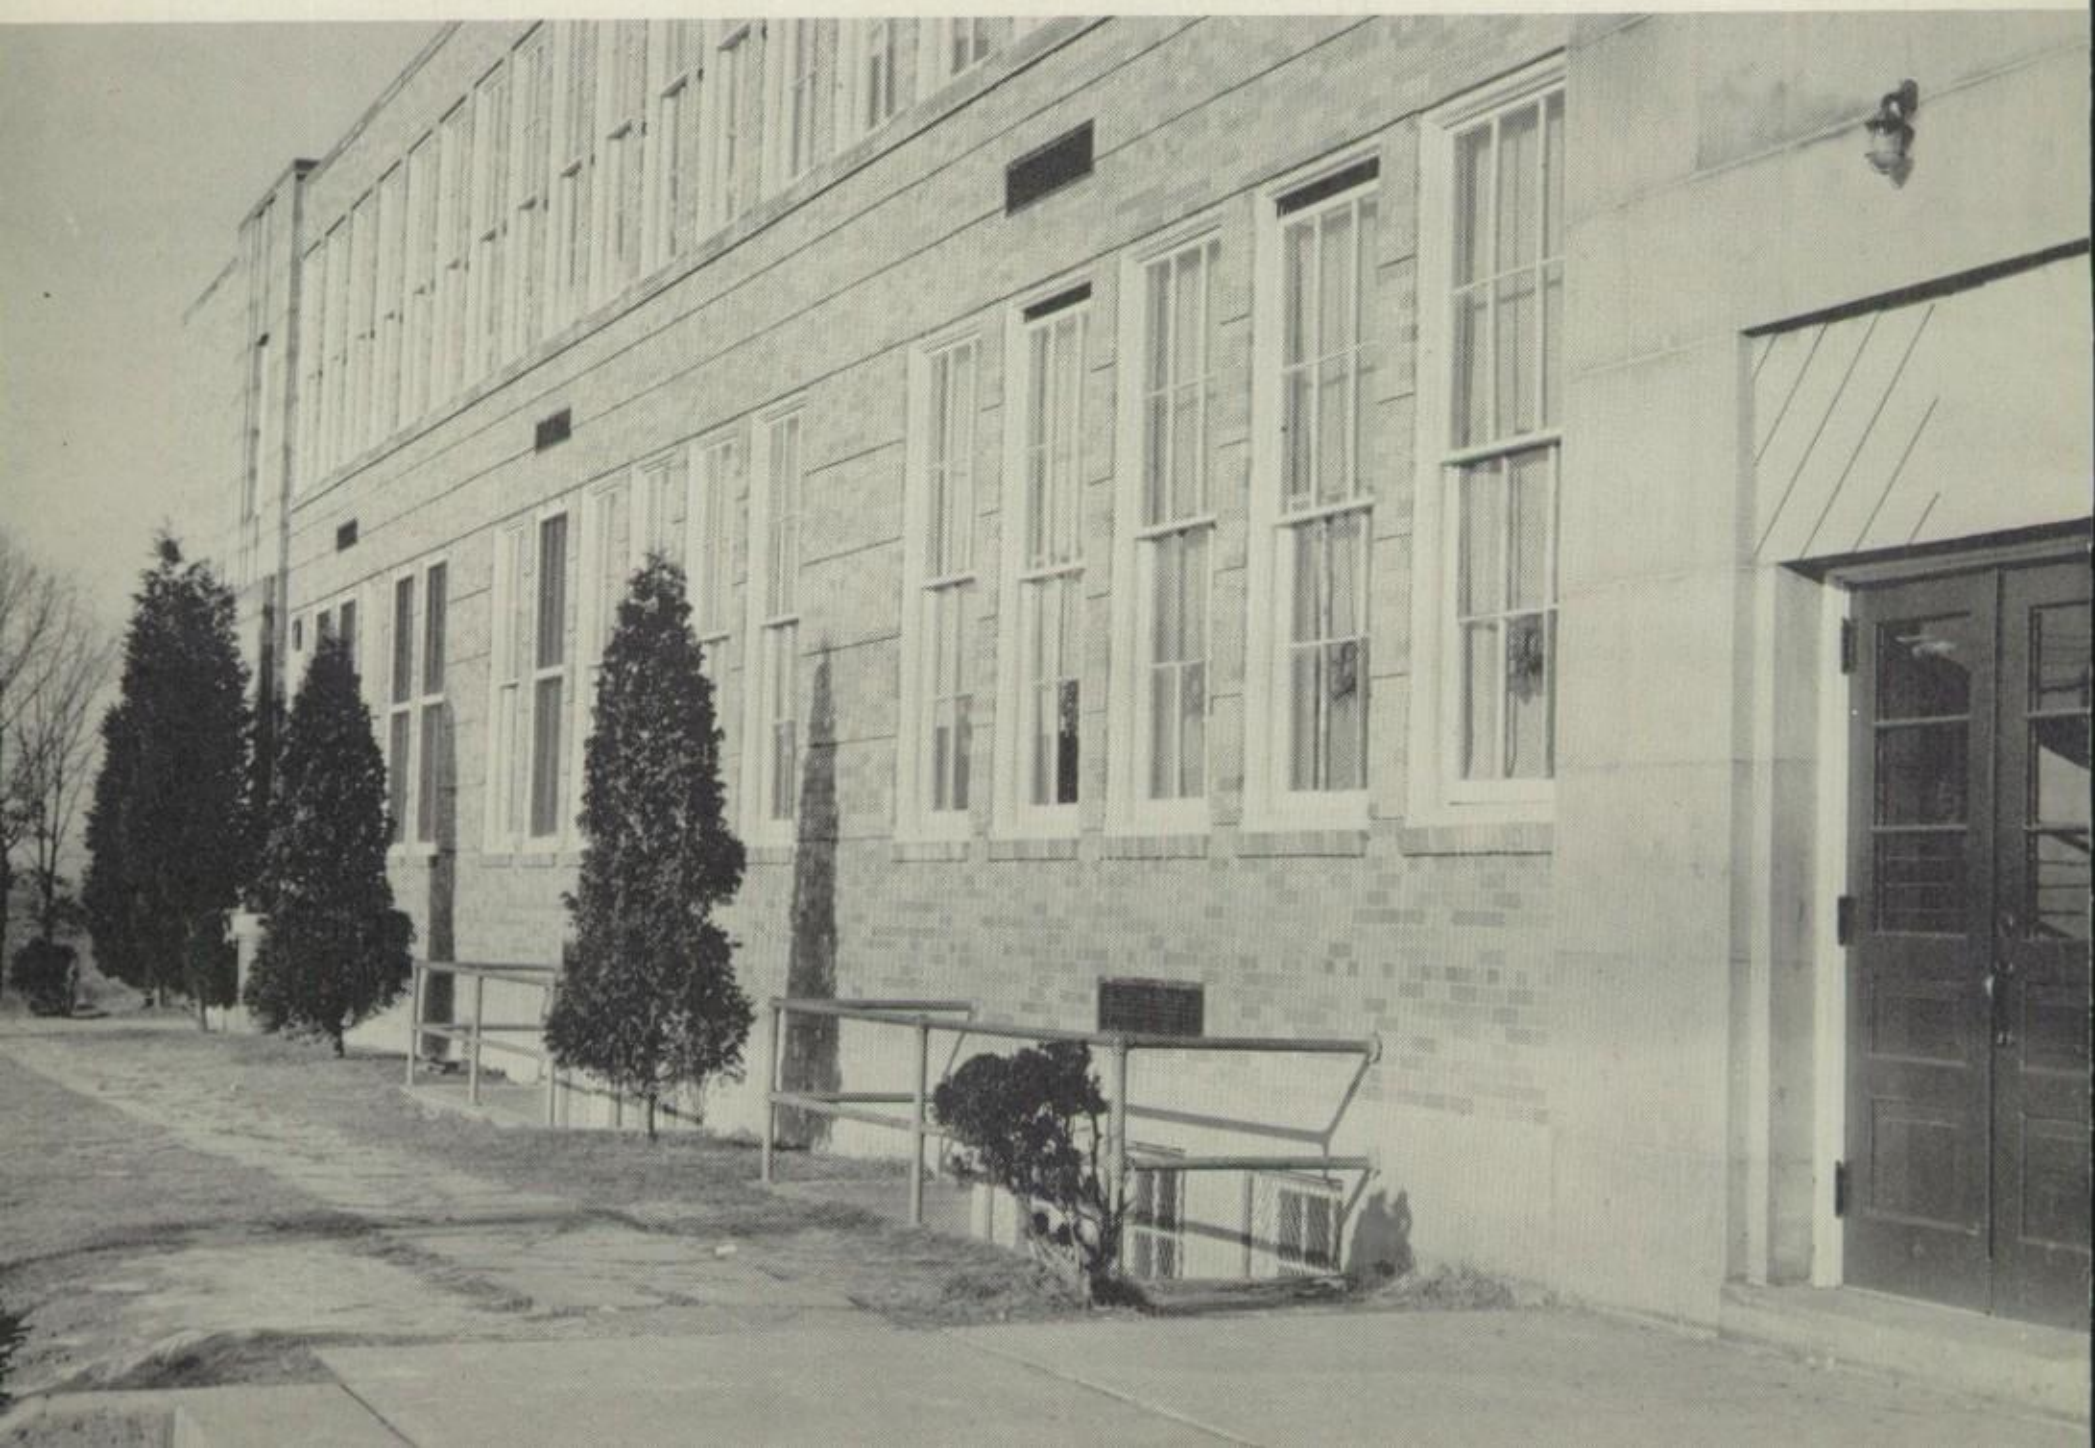

For over a quarter century the Banner has depicted life at Kulpmont High School. Containing pictures of classmates and teachers, it has been a reminder of care-free school days. Its pages bring to life dances and parties, sports and classes, as well as programs, plays and other activities.

These memories make this, the twenty-sixth, issue of the Banner, a lasting souvenir.

In Memoriam

SYLVESTER FERRARI

In memory of Sylvester Ferrari, our school director, whose untimely death brought sadness to the hearts of all who knew and loved him: Faithful to his office on the Board since elected in 1953, Mr. Ferrari sought, together with the other members of the Kulpmont Board of Education, to improve our school and its curriculum. In his passing, our school has lost an outstanding director, and our town, a loyal citizen.

To his bereaved relatives and friends, the teachers and students of Kulpmont High School extend their heartfelt sympathy.

Faculty

Teaching is a profession requiring special preparation in subject matter, teaching methods, and knowledge of how children grow and learn.

Unless there are competent teachers in the classroom the entire teaching-learning process fails.

An effective teacher is well prepared and works under conditions which facilitate his work and encourage him to remain in the profession.

Class Song

"WE'LL MISS YOU SO"

Tune: "My Happiness"

Words by Marie Thomas

Tonight we have gathered here
To bid Kulpmont High, goodbye.
Teachers, classmates, and dear friends--
We'll miss you so.

Ev'ry time we reminisce,
We'll dream of the years we've spent
In your hallowed walls, dear school.
We'll miss you so.

To teachers, we say thanks,
Knowing our school days are now past.
But we will meet again
Ev'ry time we'll think of these years.

Classmates gathered round about
To bid Kulpmont High, goodbye.
Loyalty we pledge to you,
Dear White and Blue.

We'll miss you so.

RECITATION:

Words by Joanna Saweikis

You ask how much we'll miss you dear Kulpmont High;
We'll miss you as a blue-bird would miss the sky.
We always will remember our school days here;
Our teachers, and our classmates; our Alma Mater dear.

In our hearts, your memory will stay.
A memory, to comfort us in troubled days.

Our joys we will remember, our sorrows, too;
But none of them could equal the thought of leaving you.
We always will be loyal and true to you;
To you dear Alma Mater; to you dear White and Blue.

"A Drop Into The Future"

Did you ever hear of the "Wheel of Fortune"? This is a new-fangled machine based on the automatic computer. Like the computer, it solves problems with the help of known facts; unlike it, its problems are those of the future.

Now that you have an idea what this machine does, we shall set the problem dial to the class of 1959 of Kulpmont High School and spin the "Wheel of Fortune" to April of 1984, just a month before our class' twenty-fifth reunion.

The dial starts at "A." In this first category, our "future brain" finds an artist, automobile mechanics, and aviators. JOHN ANDRUSKO is the famous artist. EDWARD MANNELLO is a skilled auto mechanic and also the owner of Mannello's Service Station. Speaking of service stations, PAUL LADOCHI is the manager of a new station of Route 122, near Kulpmont. The Air Force has a fine pilot in HERBIE HOWAL. JOANNA SAWE-
IKIS is a stewardess with one of our major airlines. LEANNE WYDRA is a second lieutenant in the WAFS.

The "Wheel" stops us next at a Bakery Shop. There LOUISE PAPP is busy decorating one of her very famous cakes.

ISABELLE DOOLEY made headlines a few weeks ago when she bowled a perfect game at the JG Alley, which, by the way, is managed by JAMES GYURCSO.

Our "Wheel" leads us to TERRY SGRO'S Beauty Salon. TERRY'S chief customer is CEILY MOTYKA. Those who want a change of color consult PENNY PUPO, world famous hair dyer.

GERRY LAUDA is the proprietor of the latest dress shop in Shamokin. Seeing help from CAROL ORDAK, the fashion consultant, are JANET DALPIAZ and BARB THOMPSON. Modeling for them is RITA D'ALEXANDER, just as pretty as ever.

The "Wheel of Fortune" takes us to the football field. TIPPER LAZARSKY is a center for the Baltimore Colts. BOB DAVIES is a guard on the same team.

The groceries department has claimed several of our classmates. Most outstanding is PEANUTS LENTINI, owner of a super market chain. Manager of his Kulpmont store is NINO BRESSI. Proprietor of Kulpmont's largest meat market, Bond's, is STEVE ROGOWSKY.

"A Drop Into The Future"

According to our "Wheel of Fortune", Reading Hospital has several graduates of K.H.S.. TONY PADULA is chief surgeon. His head operating nurse is GLORIA WILLARD. LORETTA MARCHETTI and ROSIE SHIMKO are her efficient assistants. Down the hall, CATHY NAGAR is taking X-rays. She is our only X-ray technician. CETTY NESTICO is on the main floor, busy as the head receptionist.

Great hunter, EDDIE PETROVICH, has just returned from an expedition in the jungles of South Africa. MARLIN LONG, adventure lover, accompanied him.

The married state has claimed many of our girls. MARGE WAGNER was the first to say, "I do". JINX BALON and MARY ANN WHITE have also tied knots. CHARLOTTE KRIVITSKI and ELAINE BALONIS are still close friends, even though they have both wed.

RAY MEKULSKI, our second Liberace, arranges music for DONNY D'ALEXANDER'S famous orchestra. RAY is also his pianist. Master of the drums is ED KANDROT. Our "Wheel also finds ROSE ANN LOBOSKY, our "queen of the hop," dancing to the fine music. MIDGE MACHUZAK adds a touch of humor to the show.

DAVE MOLNAR is the president of one of America's largest corporations. This is not a surprise; however, his two secretaries are a surprise. NADA PAULNACK is his private secretary, while ANITA WISNIEWSKI is chief receptionist. Incidentally, ANITA has set a world speed record in typing.

NANCY WARSHESKI and OSCAR SHEPTOCK, of course, are happily married. OSCAR is also a football coach at Richmond. His football hero is Fluffy Cesari, Jr., whose mother is another one of our friends, SANDY ROGERS.

LEN SEMICK has gone far in the U.S. Army. He is now a major. Under his command are Captain JOE OLEAR and Sergeant JOE FERNANDEZ.

Lastly, our "Wheel of Fortune" turns our attention to our Alma Mater. There MARIE THOMAS has taken over her Dad's job as Latin instructor.

So, our future telling is over. Our twenty-fifth reunion in 1984 will reveal to us the truth of these prophecies. Till then????

Synopsis

When Tobey and Brose decided to exchange class rings it seems as if their problems are settled, but they find they've a fresh new set to cope with. Tobey belatedly remembered that for months she's had a date to go to a big college dance. She can't just call it off at the last moment! Brose will certainly understand that....especially since he has to be out of town that week-end! But Brose doesn't understand at all! He thinks "going steady" means no other dates! Tobey's mother is called out of town and Tobey is left to run the house. She has a lot to deal with Dad and Brose, who unite in pushing a so-called labor saving schedule which drives Tobey half crazy. She's used to mother's easy going system of housekeeping that gets the work done without running everyone ragged! To cap matters, Tobey is to star in the school play and that means special rehearsals with the hero, Kip, of whom Brose is rather jealous.

All this is nearly too much for Tobey--especially when she and Kip are staging an important rehearsal before a visiting talent scout and the kids slink in, rigged out with blankets as a comedy horse, and manage to turn the rehearsal into a broad farce!

It's a warm and satisfying comedy with particular appeal to youth, for it is filled with sensitivity and understanding of their heartaches and joys.

We'll take good care of the house while you're gone, Mother.
